

I support the delegation of authority for area code changes to the individual states. I believe that the states are in a better position to determine the area code boundaries for their communities.

We know best what the needs of our Towns and Counties are. I would urge the commission to vote for the change.